MEET THE CONSULTANT

Moises Gonzales is an independent planning consultant with 10 years of professional planning experience. He is the past assistant Planning Director of Rio Arriba County where he worked to develop agricultural conservation policies to protect traditional agricultural lands from the impact of adverse development. Mr. Gonzales earned his master's degree in Community and Regional Planning with an Emphasis in Natural Resource Planning from the University of New Mexico, School of Architecture and Planning in 1997. In October of 2000, Rio Arriba County was awarded the Sheldon B. Gerber Award for Excellence in Environmental Planning for Mr. Gonzales work with the Board of County Commissioners on Agricultural Conservation Planning. In 2001, Mr. Gonzales received the Alumnus Award by the University of New Mexico, School of Architecture and Planning for developing innovative land use policies in Northern New Mexico. And in November of 2004, Mr. Gonzales received the "Best Planning Practices Award" at the Annual New Mexico Infrastructure Conference for his work on rural community based planning in Northern New Mexico.
